NOTE FROM THE PASTOR'S OFFICE

Dear Friends,
A couple of weeks ago I referred to this statement by A. W. Tozer. It is excellent and I wanted to share it with you. Have a great 4th!

— Pastor Clapper

"Truth is like a bird; it cannot fly on one wing. Yet we are forever trying to take off with one wing flapping furiously and the other tucked neatly out of sight. Many of the doctrinal divisions among the churches are the result of a blind and stubborn insistence that truth has but one wing. Each side holds tenaciously to one text, refusing grimly to acknowledge the validity of the other. This error is an evil among churches, but it is a real tragedy when it gets into the hearts of individual Christians … Let's use both wings. We'll get further that way."

— A.W. Tozer
